COMPLAINT

COLLECTIVE ACTION
UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and CLASS ACTION
UNDER FRCP 23

ECF Case

Plaintiff Antonio Oliva brings this Class and Collective Action Complaint on behalf of himself and similarly situated co-workers against GAPPSI INC and GIUSEPPE ABBRACATI, (collectively, “Defendants”) pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., the New York Labor Law (“NYLL”), N.Y. Lab. Law § 650 et seq., as recently amended by the Wage Theft Prevention Act (“WTPA”), N.Y. Lab Law § 195(3), N.Y. Lab Law § 191, and related provisions from Title 12 of New York Codes, Rules and Regulations (“NYCRR”).

NATURE OF ACTION

1. This Class and Collective Action Complaint seeks to recover overtime compensation for Plaintiff and similarly situated co-workers who have been employed as Construction Workers for some or all the time period relevant to this action (the relevant time period being set by the federal and state claims' respective statutes of limitations).

2. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendants who was ostensibly employed as Construction Worker for GAPPSI INC and GIUSEPPE ABBRACATI.

3. As described herein, Individual Defendant GIUSEPPE ABBRANCATI ("Individual Defendant") employed Plaintiff for the purposes of the instant claims.

4. GAPPSI INC (d/b/a GAPPSI) is a New York Corporation with its headquarters at 1015 W Jericho Turnpike, Smithtown, NY 11787.

5. Individual Defendant GIUSEPPE ABBRANCATI operate and control Defendant Corporations and, by extension, Defendant Corporations' employees, for part or all of the time period relevant to this action.

6. At all relevant times, Plaintiff regularly work for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without receiving appropriate overtime compensation for any of the hours that he worked.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping as required by the FLSA and the NYLL.

8. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees.

9. Plaintiff now brings this Class and Collective Action on behalf of himself and other similarly situated individuals, for federal and state claims relating to unpaid overtime wages, unpaid spread-of-hours wages, failure to maintain records, and the taking of unlawful deductions pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., the New York Labor Law (“NYLL”), N.Y. Lab. Law § 650 et seq., as recently amended by the Wage Theft Prevention Act (“WTPA”), N.Y. Lab Law § 195(3), and related provisions from Title 12 of New York Codes, Rules and Regulations (“NYCRR”).

10. In connection with the above-mentioned allegations and claims, Plaintiff seeks compensatory damages as well as applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorney’s fees and costs.

11. Plaintiff seeks certification of this action as a collective action under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants, and as a putative class action under FRCP 23 with respect to the New York state law claims.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 USC §§1331, and 1337 and jurisdiction over Plaintiffs’ state-law claims pursuant to 28 USC § 1367.

13. This Court also has jurisdiction over Plaintiffs’ claims under the FLSA pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

14. This Court is empowered to issue a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 USC §§ 2201 and 2202.

15. Venue is proper in the Eastern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) because Corporate Defendants reside in this District, certain Plaintiff reside in this District and because a substantial part of the events that are the subject of the litigation transpired in this District.

COLLECTIVE-WIDE FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

16. Plaintiff bring his FLSA claims on behalf of himself and all similarly situated persons who work or have worked for Defendants on or after November 25, 2014 who elect to opt-in to this action (the “FLSA Collective”).

17. All of the work that Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective have performed has been assigned by Defendants and/or Defendants have been aware of all of the work that Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective have performed.

18. As part of his regular business practice, Defendants have intentionally, willfully and repeatedly engaged in a pattern, practice and/or policy of violating the FLSA with respect to Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective. This policy and pattern or practice includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Willfully failing to pay overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week.
- b. Willfully failing to keep records that satisfy statutory requirements.

19. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and other members of the FLSA Class who are and/or have been similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans of willfully failing and refusing to pay them the require overtime pay at a one and one-half his regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, willfully taking improper wage deductions and other improper credits against Plaintiffs' wages for which Defendants did not qualify under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records require by the FLSA.

20. The claims of Plaintiff stated herein are similar to those of the other employees and Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective all perform or performed the same primary duties.

21. Defendants are aware that FLSA required them to pay employees performing non-exempt duties, including Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective overtime premium for hours worked in excess of 40 hours per workweek.

22. Defendants' unlawful conduct has been widespread, repeated and consistent.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

23. Plaintiff bring certain NYLL claims pursuant to FRCP 23 on behalf of all of Defendants' employees who work or have worked for Defendants from November 24, 2020 and the date of final judgment in this matter ("the Class").

24. Excluded from the Class are, inter alia, Defendants' employees who will submit timely and otherwise proper requests for exclusion from the Class.

25. On information and belief, the size of the Class is roughly 100 individuals. Although the precise number is unknown, the facts on which the calculation of that number depends are presently within the sole control of Defendants.

26. Common questions of law and fact exist as to the Class that predominate over any questions only affecting them individually and include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Whether Defendants violated Article 6 of the NYLL and the supporting NYS Department of Labor regulations.
- b. Whether Defendants failed to compensate the Class for hours worked in excess of 40 hours per workweek.
- c. Whether Defendants misclassified Plaintiff and members of the Class as exempt.
- d. Whether Defendants failed to keep true and accurate time and pay records for all hours worked by Plaintiff and the Class, and other records required by the NYLL.
- e. Whether Defendants' policy of failing to pay workers was instituted willfully or with reckless disregard of the law; and
- f. The nature and extent of class-wide injury and the measure of damages for those injuries.

27. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the Class's claims that they seek to represent.

Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Class in New York State. Plaintiff and the Class enjoy the same NYLL rights to receive overtime; to be protected from unlawful deductions; to have legally sufficient record-keeping. Plaintiff and the Class have all sustained similar type of damages as a result of Defendants' non-compliance with the NYLL. Plaintiff and the Class have all been injured by virtue of Defendants' under compensation of them or Defendants' failure to compensate them due to Defendants' common policies, practices and patterns of conduct.

28. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class's members. Plaintiff understand that as class representatives they assume a fiduciary responsibility to the class to represent its interests fairly and adequately. Plaintiff recognize that as class representatives, they must represent and consider the interests of the class just as they would represent and consider their own interests. Plaintiff understand that in decisions regarding the conduct of the litigation and its possible settlement, they must not favor his own interests over the Class's interests. Plaintiff recognize that any resolution of a class action must be in the best interest of the Class. Plaintiff understand that in order to provide adequate representation, they must be informed of developments in litigation, cooperate with class counsel, and testify at deposition/trial. Plaintiff have retained counsel competent and experienced in complex class actions and employment litigation. There is no conflict between Plaintiff and the Class.

29. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation. The members of the Class have been damaged and are entitled to recovery as a result of Defendants' violation of the NYLL as well as its common and uniform policies, practices and procedures. Although the relative damages suffered by individual members of the Class are not de minimis, such damages are small compared to the expense and burden of individual prosecution of this litigation. For example, Class members lack the financial resources to conduct a thorough examination of Defendants' timekeeping and compensation practices and to prosecute vigorously a lawsuit against Defendants to recover such damages. In addition, class litigation is superior because it will obviate the need for unduly duplicative litigation that might result in inconsistent judgments about Defendants' practices.

30. This action is properly maintainable as a class action under FRCP 23(b)(3).

PARTIES

Plaintiff

31. Plaintiff Antonio Oliva, (“Plaintiff Antonio Oliva”) is an adult individual residing in Nassau County, NY. Plaintiff Antonio Oliva was employed by Defendants for on or about 21 (twenty-one) years. At all relevant times to this complaint, Plaintiff Antonio Oliva was employed by Defendants as a construction worker.

32. Plaintiff consents to be parties pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and bring these claims based upon the allegations herein as representative parties of a prospective class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and as representatives of the Proposed Class.

Defendants

33. Individual Defendants have owned, operated and controlled GAPPSI INC and all times relevant to this complaint.

34. On information and belief, GAPPSI INC is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

35. Upon information and belief both GAPPSI INC and CORP., individually and collectively have more than $500,000.00 in gross annual income for the years relevant to the instant action (independent of excise taxes).

36. On information and belief, the operations of GAPPSI INC individually and collectively implicate interstate commerce insofar as these Defendants rely heavily on products such as cement and bricks that have been transported across state lines.

37. Defendant GIUSEPPE ABBRANCATI is an individual who has been the de facto and de jure owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation during the relevant time period, and he is sued individually. Defendants GIUSEPPE ABBRANCATI has possessed and exercised operational control over Defendant Corporations, for example, he has at times relevant to this litigation determined the wages and compensation of Defendants' employees, including Plaintiffs, and established the schedules of the employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees. In particular, GIUSEPPE ABBRANCATI have a prominent role in the setting of salaries for Corporate Defendants' employees and hires and fires Corporate Defendants' employees.

COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

38. Defendants operate a contraction company where Plaintiff worked. At all relevant times, Individual Defendants GIUSEPPE ABBRANCATI possess or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporations; possess or possessed an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, and control or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations.

39. Corporate Defendants and Individual Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

40. At relevant times, each Corporate Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiffs' and other similarly situated employees' working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiffs, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

41. Corporate Defendants jointly employed Plaintiffs, and all similarly situated individuals, and are Plaintiffs' and all similarly situated individuals' employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

42. In the alternative, Corporate Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff and/or similarly situated individuals, as the corporate divisions between them are fictional.

43. At all relevant times, Individual Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the FLSA, NYLL and other law.

44. Individual Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs, control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiffs' services.

45. Individual Defendants supervised Plaintiffs' work schedules and conditions of his employment.

46. Individual Defendants also determined the rate and method of payment for Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

47. Individual Defendants also controlled and guided what limited recordkeeping that took place which Plaintiff contends is deficient pursuant to FLSA and NYLL requirements.

Individual Plaintiff Antonio Oliva

48. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendants, primarily employed in performing the duties of a construction worker.

49. Plaintiff did not work at his own convenience, having to report to work according to a schedule devised by Defendants. Furthermore, once scheduled for a shift, Plaintiff did not come and go at his pleasure, but rather was controlled by Defendants.

50. Plaintiff is non-exempt under FLSA and the NYLL. Among other things, Plaintiff did not occupy what law would characterize as “professional,” “executive” or even “administrative” positions, as Plaintiffs’ employment for Defendants was physical labor. Plaintiff did not receive salary and these primary duties

51. Plaintiff commences this action as a collective action under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and as a putative class action under FRCP 23 with respect to the New York state law claims.

52. Plaintiff Antonio Oliva was employed by Defendants for 21 Years ending on November 16, 2020.

53. Plaintiff Antonio Oliva regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as phones were produced outside of the State of New York.

54. Plaintiff Antonio Oliva ’s work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

55. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Antonio Oliva regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

56. From approximately November 2014 until November 2020, Plaintiff worked for Defendants pouring bricks, concrete, bricks and asphalt.

57. Plaintiff Oliva was always paid minimum wage; however, he was not paid overtime at a time and a half. Instead, any overtime hours were paid at straight time.

58. Throughout his tenure with Defendants, Plaintiff worked an average of 75 hours per week. At times, Plaintiff worked up to (110) one hundred and ten hours per week or about 17 hours per day.

59. Plaintiff had to punch in when he reported to work and had to punch out at the end of his shift.

60. Plaintiff was paid $360 dollars by check and $320 in cash.

61. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Antonio Oliva with each payment of wages an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

62. Defendants never provided Plaintiff Antonio Oliva with a written notice of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

63. Defendants regularly require Plaintiff to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without paying him the proper overtime wages or spread of hours compensation.

64. At all times relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without paying them appropriate overtime compensation or spread of hours compensation, as require by federal and state laws.

65. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded record keeping requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act and New York Labor Law by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

66. By employing this practice, Defendants avoided paying Plaintiff at the overtime rate of time and a half for most or all of their hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

67. Defendants failed to post required wage and hour posters and did not provide Plaintiff with statutorily required wage and hour records or statements of their pay received, in part so as to hide Defendants' violations of the wage and hour laws, and to take advantage of Plaintiffs' relative lack of sophistication in wage and hour laws.

68. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff properly for (1) their full hours worked, (2) for overtime due, and (3) for spread of hours pay.

69. Defendants did not provide Plaintiffs, and similarly situated employees, with the wage statements and annual pay notices required by NYLL §§195(1) and 195(3).

70. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other employees with wage statements at the time of payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked, and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

71. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as require by New York Labor Law §195(1).
